

Year 4: NUMBER - Addition and subtraction

Solve subtraction two-step problems

- 1) I think of a number, add 2 and then add another 34. The answer is 54. What was my number?
- 2) A box holds 60 Belgian chocolates. How many chocolates are left if Dale eats 13 and Bartek eats 22?
- 3) In Sam's Sandwich Shop, there are 342 freshly made sandwiches. Sam sells 123 ham sandwiches and 108 cheese sandwiches. How many sandwiches are left?
- 4) There are 32 children at a party. Half of them are wearing a red top. Ten of them are wearing a blue top. If the rest are wearing a green top, how many are wearing a green top?
- 5) On Tuesday, 224 males and 286 females visited the museum. This is 124 more people than visited on Monday. How many more people visited the museum on Monday?
- 6) At the DVD shop, there are 143 movie DVDs and 79 comedy DVDs for sale. If the shop sells 70 DVDs, how many do they have left?